DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on an application filed in China on July 20, 2001. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified copy of the 01 126300.8 application as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b).

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to because Figures 1 and 2 state "Accsee" which should be changed to state Access. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either

Art Unit: 2617

"Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

3. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

4. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Page 1, Paragraph 3 of the disclosure states an up channel in "WCDAM", which should be corrected to state WCDMA.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hwang et al. (US 20010026543).

7. Regarding Claim 1, Hwang et al. teaches a method for variable power adjustment in the CDMA communication system, where the base station (UTRAN) retrieves acquisition information through receiving on the uplink the prefix of the physical random access channel (Access Preamble, RACH, Paragraph 6), the access prefix of the physical common packet channel (AP of the CPCH, Paragraph 17 and 18) and the conflict detection prefix (collision detection preamble, Paragraph 19) and evaluating the quality (Paragraph 522); the precise control of the transmission power of the subsequent message section of the physical random access channel (power increased in RACH until message is received by UTRAN, Paragraph 8), conflict detection prefix of the physical common packet channel (UTRAN received CD_P and sends back CD_ICH used to control power, Paragraph 99 and 239), and the power control prefix (Power control Preamble, Paragraph 21), the message section are obtained based on the quality evaluation value (ACK or NACK, Paragraph 19); the control indication of the said precise control is transmitted via the down link acquisition indication channel (AICH, Paragraph 19), access prefix acquisition indication channel (AP_AICH), and conflict detection/channel assignment indication channel (CD_ICH); and after receiving the said power control indication by the user equipment (Paragraph 523), the subsequent message section of the physical random access channel (Paragraph 8), conflict detection prefix of the physical common packet channel (After AP_AICH then MS transmits CD_P, Paragraph 522), and the power control prefix (After CD_ICH Mobile station transmits PC_P, Paragraph 523), the message section are transmitted by using a value among a plurality of power bias values (Power level corresponding to the preamble to which the UTRAN has responded with the AICH signal, Paragraph 9).

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 2-6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
